

Why PFUR?

- ✓ PFUR is an internationally acknowledged and worldwide famous university with great history - in 1960 - 1991 it was known under the name of Patrice Lumumba University (after the Congolese independence leader Patrice Lumumba).
- ✓ People's Friendship University of Russia is the No 1 University by the level of internationalization among the higher education institutions of Russia, CIS and the BRICS according to QS World University Rankings for 2014-2015. PFUR community is truly international. Foreign students from more than 150 countries are currently enrolled at PFUR's under- and postgraduate programs.
- ✓ Tremendously wide and solid network of PFUR alumni throughout the world, including:
 - Mahmoud Abbas - President of the State of Palestine (since 2005) and Prime Minister of the Palestinian National Authority (2003)
 - Abbas Yusuf Saleh - Prime Minister of the Republic of Chad (2008-2010)
 - Bharrat Jagdeo - Prime Minister (1999) and President of the Co-operative Republic of Guyana (1999-2011)
 - Porfirio Lobo Sosa - President of the Republic of Honduras (since 2010)
 - Massimov Karim Qajymqanuly - Prime Minister of Kazakhstan (since 2007)

Hundreds of Ministers and Ambassadors all over the world!

Future Employment

Diplomat

Project/Program Officer (NGO)

Foreign Service Officer

Policy Institution Analyst

Our contacts:

Peoples' Friendship University of Russia
Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences
Department of Theory and History of International Relations
Tel.: +7 (499) 936-85-26 E-mail: ir@pfur.ru
Program Coordinator - Svetlana Bokeriya, PhD, Associated professor
Tel: +79671814630 E-mail: bokeria_sa@pfur.ru

Global Security and Development Cooperation

Unique M.A. Program in the field of International Studies completely taught in English

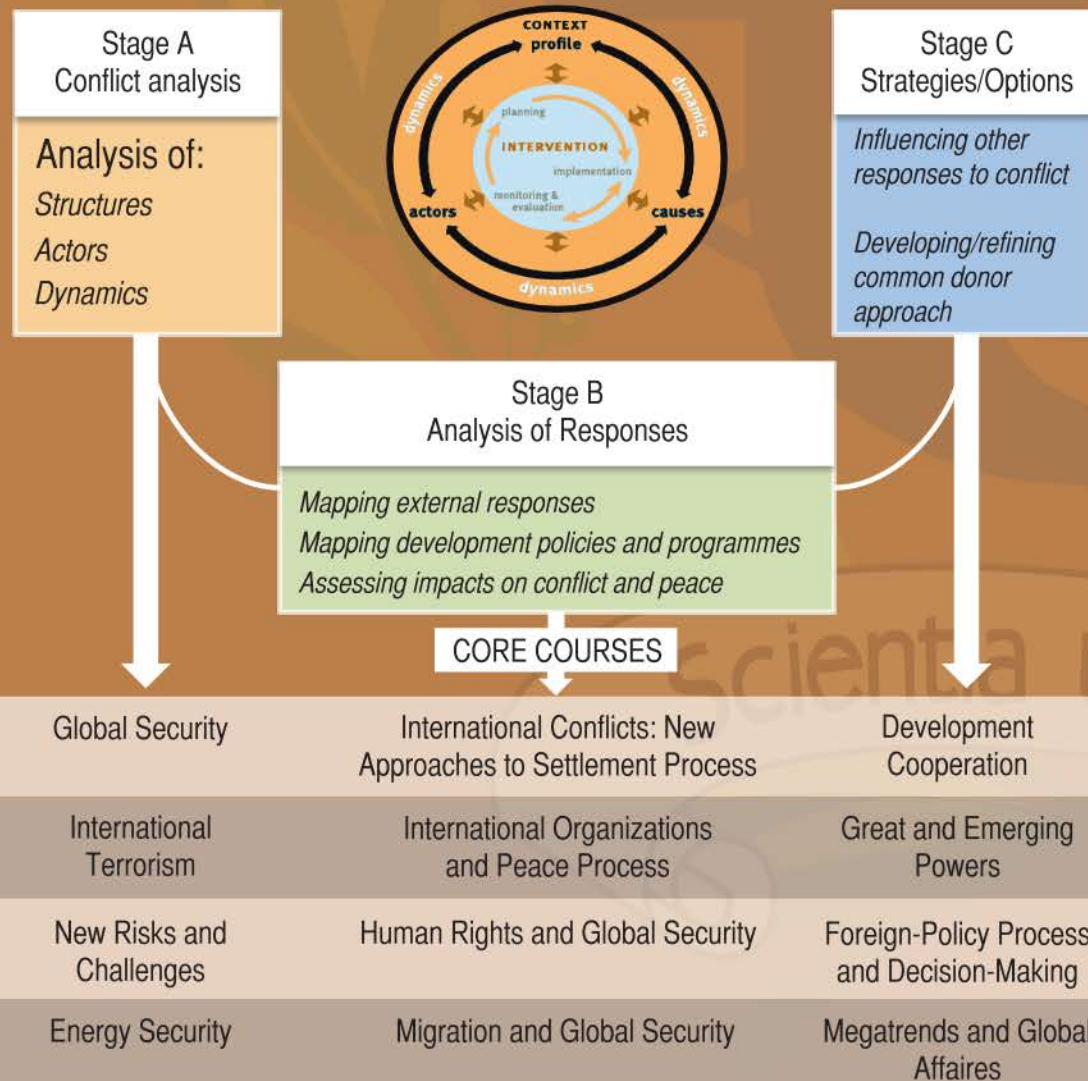

GOAL: The program provides in-depth knowledge of security-development nexus with a special focus on a new generation of conflicts and fragile states, global policy-making involving great and emerging powers, the role of the UN system and regional institutions in the security governance and sustainable development.

The founding principle of this M.A. program is the complex approach towards Global Security Studies, including Military Security, Political & Social Stability, Human Security, Agriculture & Food Security, Energy Security, Cyber Security.

Program Difference:

- ✓ Unique student body (students from all aid-recipient countries => first-hand information and in-depth understanding of conflicts at grass-roots level)
- ✓ Close cooperation with renowned academic staff of MGIMO, Moscow State University and Diplomatic Academy of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Russia
- ✓ Innovative curriculum (3 stages of policy analysis)

Key Staff:

Administration

Vladimir Filippov

Rector of Peoples' Friendship University of Russia

Larisa Efremova

Vice-Rector for International Academic Mobility

Vladimir Tsvyk

Dean of the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences

Academic Staff on the Program

Global Security

Renat Zinnurov

International Security Expert

Denis Degterev

Leading expert in International Development Assistance
Executive Director of Russian Expert Network on Development Cooperation

Development Cooperation

Theories of International Relations

Alexandra Khudaikulova

Adviser of MGIMO rector
Alumna of Tsygankov P.A., the leading Russian specialist in International Relations Theory.

Oxana Morgunova

Visiting professor, University of Glasgow (UK)

Migrations and Global Security

Security Challenges in Africa

Nigussie Kassaye Michael

PhD in History

Svetlana Bokeriya

Program Coordinator
PhD in Law, Associate professor

International Organizations and Peace Process